8 UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
9 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
10 AT SEATTLE

11 In re:
12 NORTHWEST TERRITORIAL MINT, LLC,
13 Debtor.

Case No. 16-11767-CMA

14 MEDALLIC ART COMPANY, LLC,
15 Plaintiff,

Case No. 16-11767-CMA

Adv. Proc. No. 16-01196-CMA

16 v.

17 MARK CALVERT, as trustee and on behalf of 18 the estate of Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC;
19 Defendant.

TRUSTEE'S PRELIMINARY
RESPONSE TO MEDALLIC ART COMPANY LLC'S MOTION FOR VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL

20 Mark Calvert (the "Trustee"), Chapter 11 Trustee for Northwest Territorial Mint, LLC
21 ("NWTM" or the "Debtor"), submits this Response to Medallc Art Company LLC's Motion for 22 Voluntary Dismissal (the "Motion").

23 After eight months of vexatious and unnecessary litigation over issues including substantive 24 consolidation, alter ego and ownership of certain assets of the bankruptcy estate at enormous cost to

1 the estate¹, Medallic seeks to voluntarily dismiss its case and concede the substantive consolidation
2 or the alter ego status of Medallic with the Mint and strike pending trial dates. The Trustee has no
3 objection to the dismissal of Medallic's claims and defenses, and agrees that an order of substantive
4 consolidation or alter ego should be entered. The Trustee does, however, object to an order of 5 dismissal determining that there should be no award of fees and costs.² An order of dismissal should 6 dismiss both Medallic's affirmative claims and its defenses to the Trustee's counterclaims. The 7 Trustee believes that the May 2-4, 2017 trial dates can be stricken upon entry of such an order. The 8 Trustee proposes an order in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A for that purpose.³

9 The Trustee believes that the Court should enter judgment on the Trustee's counterclaims for 10 substantive consolidation and/or an alter ego determination and addressing the NWTM bankruptcy
11 estate's ownership of assets based upon the concession of Medallic and its failure to prosecute this 12 litigation. The Trustee is prepared to seek agreement with Medallic on a final form of order and 13 judgment to be presented to the Court for consideration. The judgment should order substantive
14 consolidation and/or an alter ego determination and should confirm the NWTM bankruptcy estate's
15 ownership of certain assets.⁴ If the parties cannot agree to a form of judgment, the Trustee is 16 prepared to present a proposed form of order and judgment on notice to Medallic with an 17 opportunity for objection and hearing.

18 ¹ Medallic's Motion contains irrelevant, spurious and unsupported allegations that the estate is 19 administratively insolvent, which allegations its principal Mr. Hansen has been publishing for some 20 time. Medallic's arguments that the estate has incurred significant professional expense burden are particularly troubling in that Medallic has been a primary cause of the professional burden in this case.

21 ² The Trustee and his counsel received notice of the Motion for Voluntary Dismissal only yesterday, 22 April 12, 2017. The Trustee's counsel is still in the process of evaluating whether and how the issue of costs and attorneys' fees should be brought before the Court.

23 ³ Trustee's counsel and counsel for Medallic have ongoing discussions regarding the form of this 24 proposed order. The parties may reach agreement on a form of stipulated order and will advise the court if such agreement is reached.

25 ⁴ In particular, the judgment should expressly determine the ownership of the real property lease for 26 the Dayton premises and the rights to certain intellectual property including tradenames.

1 To the extent the Court so desires, the Trustee is available for a status conference regarding
2 the means to address trial scheduling and other issues arising from Medallic's Motion to Dismiss its 3 Claims.⁵ The Trustee requests that the Court strike the trial after dismissing Medallic's claims and 4 defenses to the Trustee's counterclaims and that the Court reserve issues regarding fees and costs.

25 ⁵ Medallic has suggested a telephonic status conference on Friday, April 14, 2017. The Trustee will 26 be before the Court on an unrelated motion in this case on the morning of April 14. The Trustee is available in person or telephonically for a status conference in the afternoon of April 14.
